“ Hey Ponch,

You don't understand how much I'm going to miss you, how much the whole family is going to miss you. I can't imagine my life without you but I know that even tho physically you won't be with us, spiritually you're always gonna be here. I'm going to miss that beautiful curly hair that I was always so jealous about. Or how you'd get on to me for wasting the leftover milk from the bowl of cereal bc I hated drinking milk, or you laughing at me bc of my fear of bugs lol. It saddens me that my baby won't get to grow up with you in his life but Just know I'm going to make sure he knows about you & how kind hearted, smart, & funny this tio was. We'll make sure to take care of your mom & Luis, we love you & deeply miss you! I will never stop thinking about you 💙💙💙

“ Alfonso was my first coworker friend at UPS when I first started working there in December 2014, we would go once in a while to McDonald's to eat and play video games, talk for hours in the parking lot, bicker here and there, he was a very hard working young man, competitive, respectful and friendly. We would always look out for one another. He was like my little brother in the very little time I got to know him. I will miss him dearly. My condolences and prayers to Alfonso's family.

“ My condolence to Alfonso family for they lost of a precious human being. He is a great person with high dedication for his job and life. My heart is saddened that I won't be able to see him physically anymore and wish he could be here with us today. I gave him the nickname "Captain" because I have so much respect for him and he knew how to carry a team to success. I know that he is in our hearts and looking after us spiritually. I will be praying for Alfonso my captain for his soul and family.

“ I still can not believe he is gone. He was such a blessing to this world, will miss his heartwarming smile, loving disposition. He had a heart of gold - a true Angel on earth. God must of known was to good to be of this world, but instead he was given eternal life. He is now a glorious Angel to watch over us RIP Ponchito! ❤️

“ I have seen this beautiful person grow up threw picture my sister posts on her social media but finally got to met him in person last year. And it was so awesome to have the conversation we had. I was so looking forward to have many more times like that and really get to know him. But I have to wait now until we see each other again. I feel good knowing my nephew is a guardian angel looking over us. May you Rest In Peace Mijo

“ Theres so much I could say and I wish I could sit here and type it all out but it's so hard. You were so loved by all of us. They say God takes his strongest soldiers and now I see why. Heres some pictures of us that I will forever cherish and hold so close to my heart as well as all the debates & conversations we had, all the family moments at grandmas and at home. You were the best of the best. Until we meet again ponchi. ❤️

“ My heart is sooo heavy 😞 Today, I lost one of My Work Besties/ Colleague Alfonso Venzor. Having to hear I will never see you again just hurt my heart 😞 From Day One meeting Fonso at our Haslet HUB I knew we would be Besties going to Our New Arlington HUB. Fonso and I built an unbreakable friendship, we would talk about any and everything! We had fun on and off the job! Alfonso, was very intelligent, he was a man of integrity, an outstanding Trainer, with a grand sense of humor, he definitely loved going above and beyond to help anyone. There’s so much I could share, just know that Alfonso Venzor was a Realist! It’s going to be hard as hell but I’m going to keep the PromisePack we made to each other 🤝👊 You Rest Easy Homie 😍 I Love and will always Miss You, MyBestie 👯 Condolences to the family and friends.
