

Andrea Abad

February 4, 1936 - November 21, 2012

Andrea Abad, 76, a current resident of Navasota and former resident of Grand Prairie, died unexpectedly on November 21, 2012 while visiting her family in Grand Prairie. Andrea was born on February 4, 1936 in Courtney, Texas, the daughter of the late Joseph Garcia Sr., and the late Angelita Baldobino Garcia. She was raised in Navasota, where she would live until moving to the Grand Prairie area to be near her children. Always happy, Andrea loved to work in the yard, growing roses or just being outdoors. She enjoyed going out to eat, working her crosswords or working a search-a-word puzzle. Andrea was devoted in her faith. Her family would enjoy special trips to San Juan, Texas where she would visit and attend services at the Shrine of La Virgen De San Juan Del Valle. Her survivors include her children, Cleto J. Garcia Jr. and his spouse Carmen, Andrea Paredes and her spouse Chris; 9 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; sister, Frances Ostigin; brother, Joe Garcia. She preceded her brother John Garcia in death by only 2 days. Visitation: 4 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 28, 2012 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where Recitation of the Holy Rosary will occur at 7. Mass of Christian Burial: 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 29, 2012 at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. Burial will follow at Grand Prairie Memorial Gardens.
