

Angel Omar Maturino

November 8, 1979 - July 1, 2022

Angel Omar Maturino, 42, of Dallas, Texas passed away Friday, July 1, 2022.

Angel Omar Maturino was born in Rodeo Durango, Mexico on November 8, 1979 to Jose Reyes Maturino and Maria del Rosario Morales. He was the second oldest of 5 children. Angel spent most of his life living in Dallas, Texas where he enjoyed fishing, watching football games, early morning conversations, and spending time with his family.

Angel was loving and would do almost anything to help family members in need. He accepted Jesus as his savior early on in his life and tried his best to be a good Christian. He was a hard worker who often had two jobs to support his family. Waking up early was something he enjoyed to do. "Early bird gets the worm" as he would say. On his downtime, Angel enjoyed attending sporting events with his brothers, church with his sister, and watching TV with his mom and dad. His favorite meal was enchiladas, his favorite color was blue, his favorite team was the Cowboys, and his favorite saying was "anybody could get it". He was loving, funny, caring, and a protector of those he loved. He will be missed by all that knew him.

Angel is survived by his wife, Maria Maturino, parents, Jose Reyes Maturino and Maria del Rosario Morales, siblings, Hever Alan Maturino, Gonzalo Maturino, Crystal Watson and Reyes Maturino, Jaime, Alejandro and Carla, ten nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Man oh Man - this is a hard one - never in a million years did I think I would be writing on a Tribute Wall for you

I met you when you came to work at Wilson Metal Fabricators back in 2012 - the only employee to give me a hard time and talk back to me - make me mad and then say something funny to make me laugh - you knew how to hit a nerve for sure. I will miss the Good Mornings and the God Bless You's, the multiple visits to my office just to chit chat and to BS - you were a friend to my husband as well and speaking of you still never gave me back my Buc-ee's blanket from my husbands birthday party when you stayed at our house - every time I asked you for my blanket all you would say is man that blanket is comfortable and then change the subject - I knew it was just so you could keep it - it was ok - I had bought another one but I still gave you a hard time about it

Sucks I had to hear this news when I was on vacation - now who is going to get on my nerves at work lol

Its sad that you are no longer here on this earth but the memories will last forever - when they created gone but not forgotten - they were definitely thinking of you - lol

May you rest in peace my friend - I will see you on the other side one day

“ As kids I would follow you wanting to be cool like you. We grew up playing basketball walking to H. S. Thompson staying out late at night. Recently we shot some hoops and boy were we rusty. I'll never forget how you would stick your tongue out a little to the side when concentrating on something. You always had our back and ready to defend us. I'm going to miss your loud stern voice full of excitement and emotion. I love you big brother!!

“ You were my big brother and I always looked up to you. I remember going to the Mean Green games with you. It was so fun to see the games even though they didn't win most of the times. I hope you remember the time we went to the Ice Museum. It was freezing in there but we had fun going down the slides. You have left me with a lot of great memories. I will miss our early morning phone conversations and will cherish all the memories we had together. Until we meet again brother.

“ I'll miss making tamales and bringing them to you for Christmas brother. I'll miss making enchiladas for your birthday... I'll miss your loud voice during the football games. Your shoes had to be clean!!! Your pants had to be starched and the shirt had to be ironed!!!
