“ I met Angela when she was 6 years old. I was her First Grade teacher. She was a happy child & was eager to learn. I remember beautiful bows in her hair & dresses that were very pretty. She took pride in her work and was happy when she learned to read. She would give me a hug when she got to school & when she left. Angela would tell me about J.J. and Xochitl, she loved to talk and write about them in her journal. I have a very special place in my heart for the Lopez/Marquez family. I had the privilege of working w/First Graders for many years. Her name Angela has the word "angel" in it and it was fitting for her. May she rest in God's eternal glory. He has gained an angel.
