

Angela Sabedra

March 3, 1929 - January 9, 2012

Angela Esquivel Sabedra, 82, a native of Dallas, Texas, died on Monday, January 9, 2012 in Grapevine, Texas after an extended illness. Mrs. Sabedra was born on March 3, 1929, the daughter of the late Arturo Esquivel and the late Herculina Rangel Esquivel. She met her husband, the late Rufus Sabedra, at a young age. They began their life together, raising 4 children. After her children were grown, she began a career as a Licensed Vocational Nurse at the Eastern Star Home in Arlington, continuing patient care until the early 1990's. Mrs. Sabedra was a talented musician and loved to sing. She, along with her husband, found enjoyment in traveling after their retirement. Later in life, she even learned to swim and loved to be near water. She was a member originally of Burbank Gardens Church of Christ and later transferred to Freetown Road Church of Christ. She is survived by children, Alfred Sabedra, Elizabeth Morrison and her husband James Anderson, Eunice Herbertson and her husband Bruce; 6 grandchildren; 6 great-grandchildren; brothers, Alex Esquivel and his wife Susan, John Esquivel and his wife Aurora; and sister, Augustina Vasquez. She was preceded in death by her husband, a son, Michael Sabedra, brother, Arturo Sabedra and sister, Carmen Zamarano. Visitation: 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Funeral: 1 p.m. Saturday, January 14, 2012 at Freetown Road Church of Christ. Burial will follow at Southland Memorial Park.
