

Angel Martin Zuniga

April 18, 1986 - October 24, 2010

Angel Martin Zuniga, 24, an employee of Wells Fargo Bank, died Sunday, October 24, 2010 in Ft. Worth, Texas from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. Angel was born April 18, 1986, the third and youngest son of Martin Zuniga and Maria Guadalupe Salazar. He was a life long resident of Grand Prairie where he attended schools, graduating from Grand Prairie High School in 2005. While there, he was active in extra curricular activities, including the wrestling Team. Angel was a sports fanatic. He loved playing basketball with his friends and especially loved his Dallas Cowboys. He was always laughing, easy-going and ambitious. He was not afraid to be the center of attention and always had an easy and quick smile. He leaves behind the joy of his life, his daughter, Maddison L. Zuniga; father, Martin Zuniga; mother, Maria Salazar; brothers, Estaban Zuniga, Josue Zuniga; and grandmother, Juana Ramirez. Visitation: 12 noon until 5 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28, 2010 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Funeral: 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 28 at Fairview Baptist Church, 1202 Small Street, Grand Prairie, Texas. A private burial will occur at a later date.
