“ Agi, my sister and friend, great confidant in whom I am well pleased.

*I wish that I could tell you I'm not ready to let you go.
But you've already departed, and my heart is feeling so low.*

*Although my heart may be broken, there's no need to weep for you.
You are in a wonderful place now, where you are happy and so carefree.*

*Even if you are gone, you've left behind good memories to comfort us.
I will concentrate on the best times we had and try not to feel so blue.*

For one day we'll be together again, to laugh and sing and play.

We'll be so glad to see you again, it will seem you were gone just one day.

Adieu! My Sweet Sister

“ IN EVERLASTING MEMORY OF MY SISTER AGII.

My earliest memories of Agi and her twin brother dates back to the civil war era. They were often referred to the war twins. Every night, families had to hide in the Bush, to avoid shelling bombardment just to survive. This was when the war twins of Idumu Oseh came alive. They would cry all night, out of fear and hunger. Yet Agi survived to blossom into the pretty young lady everyone knew then.

*In no time at all, she got married and had 2 lovely daughters, only for faith to so cruelly snatch her away. Well God knows what's best. Rest in peace my little sister!

“ With tears and pain in my heart I write these ode in your memory.
For there is a time to be born.
And the time to transit and transform unto eternity.
Your life and challenges is an example to us.
You are victorious
Over the adversities of this world.
Daughter of Zion
Earth lost is Heaven gain
Heaven is the prize
Your soul have finally strive to gain.
Your labour of Love is not in vain.
Your labour shall not be in vain.
Your seeds up to the forth generation shall establish
Your name as long as the Lord tarries.

As you are committed to mother earth
Unto eternity.
I pray God console your seeds 'Love and Gabriella'.

I can never say goodbye!
Today I say goodnight!

Goodnight
Anthonia Agilliga Ekwutozi
Nwa-Maria, Mummy Love, Mummy Gabriella
My ever smiling sister.

Continue smiling in Eternity
Sleep in peace
Until we wake-up unto resurrection.

Goodnight.

“ *Dear beloved sister,
You left us so soon.
A wonderful woman of God, peace maker, prayer warrior, intercessor, kind loving child of God and Esther of our time.
To God be the glory.
Sleep well as you sleep on, no more worries and pain, sleep on in peace.
Rest in the bosom of the Almighty God till we meet on the resurrection day to part no more. In Jesus Name.
Amen.*

“ Auntie Agi I still remembered our last conversation. Your gentle voice reassuring me God was in control of your health. That is the memory I have of you as a woman of faith. You were a true believer that was always loving, peaceful, caring and joyful. I am heartbroken to hear of your death and I can not question God. I am only comforted that you are in a better place. Continue to rest on daughter of Zion. You will be truly missed. Forever in our hearts!
