“ you in my kitchen a week before you passed. standing in front of my refrigerator and we were just talking. you had mentioned you weren't feeling good. but assured me that your doctor had it under control. had i known that a week later you'd b gone, i would have, i don't know. questioned more. made sure you went back to the doc. i don't know. i have a lot of guilt. i heard what you were telling me but did i listen? i will have this guilt forever. to me you were invincible. that day we hugged hello and good bye. we never hardly ever hugged. much less 2 times. i will never forget you. ever. you are always in my thoughts. i miss you.

“ Armando was one of my Soldiers while we were stationed at Ft. Sill, OK. We spent a lot of time together in our M88 while we were in the field. I always could count on him to be the calming presence in our section. A kind, compassionate man that will be missed by all. RIP Big G!

“ Armando and I started working for the post office together. I had the pleasure to get to know him and grow close to him . He watched out for me in our new career and was always cheerful, never saw him down . Armando was always willing to help and always put his all in everything he did . Rest in peace Armando , you will be missed dearly by many .
