“ Clayton Day was the best boss I ever had. I met Betty through him. I lived in Grand Prairie too at that time and was at their house many times. Even visited them many times after Clayton retired. Betty was just the sweetest person. Clayton was the witty one and Betty gently kept him in line. I wish I had known about the funeral, I would have loved to paid my respects.

“ Clayton and Betty loved the LORD and loved each other. They had servants' hearts, often giving to help others but preferring to be in the background. - from Emil Balliet

“ Betty & Clayton were such a sweet couple. We will never forget the Christmas that they gave our little girls each a big teddy bear. We sat by them in church and they were always so kind. We loved them both. Betty will be deeply missed. Mike & Cindy Hoover

“ Betty and Clayton often checked on senior citizens who were friends and members of Calvary. They would pick up groceries and check on these seniors. Their love and concern for others was exhibited by their actions.

I loved Betty and Clayton. Such great people and they loved the Lord and their church with all they had and all they were. Heaven such is getting sweeter... I bet when Betty arrived she was greeted by a flock of Calvary members. What a day that will be!!
