Betty was born on November 17, 1938, the daughter of the late Melvin William Herring and the late Hattie Clairine Dajka Herring. After her graduation, she would attend college for 2 years where she studied the basics of accounting. Her skills would earn her a position at LTV where she would briefly work. Her true passion was discovered when she would begin a career as a professional model. She would continue modeling until her late 40's.
