He married Louise Castleberry in June of 1990. He was a member of the Potter's House Assembly of God Church in Plano for nine years and then Metro Family Church (4 Corners Church) for 16 years. He enjoyed both greeting and ushering at church. After

“ I only knew Bill for a short time, when he was in College Station. I was the obnoxious neighbor kid who hung around, mainly for the cars, and got in the way. I think of him regularly. Bill was kind and befriended me, for no apparent reason, and taught me a great deal about cars and drag racing. He sold me my first car. I have periodically tried to find him to thank him for his generosity and patience. Thanks, Bill!
