“ When first I met Loyd he was kind funny and devoted his life to god. He loved everyone we all loved him.

I was proud that god pick Loyd and Karen bring home my birth daughter.

I'm proud that I had Kirby and proud that I have a grandson Justin. I love them so.

When my sister and nephew and I went to Justin's I first birthday.

When I got out I saw Loyd see saw me. I said Loyd I'm Tammy, Kirby's birth mom. We hugged. Loyd was a beautiful person.

I know and god knows that Kirby was in good hand to loving parent. I wouldn't have it anyway other way.

There's no words to describe how Loyd was a loving person. A devoted his life to help homeless people. He really love god.

Raise a beautiful daughter and and Justin. Whom I love them a lot. Loyd will tell me I love you. I'll did the same.

Kirby and Justin mean a lot to me. They will always be part of my life. I love them both.

Loyd made a good living and provider for his family. He'll be well miss.

He's not suffering anymore. He's happy in heaven with god and Jesus. I know he's down and how proud of Kirby and Justin.

I love you all , 🌹

Tammy, and Aprilrose cat 😊❤️🌹

“ Many years ago I started a new job, unbeknown to me there was a baseball fan among these overwhelming loud speakers whom made my day exciting.

This auctioneer I knew must be a good one.

Wearing a faded Boston Red Sox ball cap. I notice while setting by his side ,he would say Hello to everyone and say did you watch that game last night? And

Do you know the Lord? Tip that faded Red Sox cap as to be a gentleman with respect.

He gave me a book to read, which showed to be he knew the Lord and love all People.

Had had many challenges in his own life. I can say he told me me was headed up to Fenway ; I remember telling him and have an awesome time please sing "Sweet Caroline for me" Loyd respond to me will do.

Many years have passed since those days

When I heard of his passing ,I thought now he will have the best seat at a ballgame.

Rest In Peace

“ Good bye old friend. Remembering your smile and handshake every time we saw each other.

The Highland Welcome.

When death's dark stream I ferry o'er

A time that shall surely come; in heaven itself I'll ask no more, than just a Highland welcome.

Rest in Peace

“ I am so sorry to hear of Lloyd's passing. I remember how caring he was about getting the right Girl Scout cookies for his friends and how he was able to quote scriptures off the top of his head. I was only around him a couple of times; but loved his cheerful nature. Pat Jackson

“ Loyd ALWAYS loved doing out church auction for FUMCGP. He would send me text messages telling me he forgot to put it on his calendar. Then I 'd get another a few minutes later to see if I was conscious. We went to high school together. We always talked about us doing what we love to do. Serving the Lord and how in high school who knew....Rest in Peace. Comfort for family and all who called him friend.
