

Blair Robert Nappenberger

July 30, 1942 - November 16, 2006

Blair Robert Knappenberger, 64, a native of Homestead, PA., and resident of Arlington died Thursday, Nov. 16, 2006. Blair was a Marine and Vietnam veteran. His military training as a radar technician lead him to a career of computer repair, working initially for NASA and finally starting his own business, Micro-Fix or Arlington. After living in Houston, he moved to Euless, becoming active in sporting activities including golf, tennis and softball. He continued playing softball, still active with the Texas Legends of the North Texas League. Visitation: 12 to 4 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 26, 2006 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home with funeral services at 4, Rev. Tim Jarrell officiating. Burial: Monday, Nov. 27, 2006 with military honors at DFW National Cemetery, Dallas, Texas. Survivors: sons, John Knappenberger and wife Laurie of West Virginia, Dale Knappenberger and wife Jacqueline of Euless, Erik Nappenberger of Arlington, 5 grandchildren and a sister, Audrey Goga of Pittsburgh, PA.

Previous Events

Visitation

NOV 26 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570