

Bob Paul Daniel

May 1, 1938 - September 23, 2014

Bob Paul Daniel, 76, loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and brother-in-law, died peacefully at a local hospital surrounded by his family on Tuesday, September 23, 2014.

Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25, 2014. Funeral: 11 a.m. Friday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050, Pastor Ed Snyder officiating. Burial will follow at Southland Cemetery.

Bob was born on May 1, 1938, the oldest of 4 children born to the late Leo J. Daniel and the late Lennie Jean Brown Daniel in Hobart, Oklahoma. He would live in several cities, including Lubbock where he would meet the love of his life, Mae House. They would marry and spend the next fifty-one years of their life together.

In his younger years, he would drive trucks before eventually settling in a career with Roadway Express. He would continue with them, working as mechanic until his retirement in 2000.

As a young man, Bob had a love for fast cars and racing. He was an accomplished driver and received numerous trophies for wins on the race track while living in west Texas. Before the decline of his health, he loved spending time outdoors, hunting or sharing a cold Dr. Pepper.

In later years, he loved attending storage auctions and flea markets. He shared a special bond with friends at the Forest Hill Indoor Outdoor Flea Market.

Survivors: wife, Mae House Daniel; children, Bob Daniel and his companion, Jerrie Smith, Ricky Daniel and his wife Julie, Heather Rosales and her spouse Camilo; grandchildren, Brittany, Justin, Amanda, Alexis, Trenton, Emilie; great-grandchildren, Kailee, Caleb; brother, Ronny Daniel and his wife Ella; Pam Hunt and her husband Jack; step-grandchildren, Stephanie and Benjamin.

Pallbearers will be Justin Daniel, Trenton Daniel, Jeremy Garcia, Joe Garcia, Monte House and Jerry McNeely.

In lieu of flowers, the family request donations be given in Bob's name to Solid Rock Church, 1115 Coker Street, Irving, TX, 75062.
