

Bonnie Jean McKay

November 4, 1959 - November 18, 2013

Bonnie Jean McKay, loving wife, mother and friend, departed this life on Monday, November 18, after a courageous battle with cancer, 14 days following her 54th birthday.

Memorial service: 2 p.m. Monday, Nov. 25, 2013 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050.

Bonnie was born on November 4, 1959 in Oxnard, California, the daughter Angus Zabel McKay and Mitsuko Ohkita McKay, a military family. After the death of her parents, she would assume the role of matriarch for her family.

She was a faithful employee of Minyards for more than twenty-four years. She would retire after the grocery store downsized and was no longer a strong presence in the north Texas area.

Bonnie loved to take trips, and was occasionally able to schedule one that would coincide with a concert of the Bay City Rollers. She loved butterflies, shopping, Donnie and Marie Osmond songs, and dogs, especially her beagles.

Survivors: husband of 13 years, Ron Williams; children, Amanda Gonzales, Christopher Robert Williams; brother, Billy McKay and a sister, Mollie McKay

Everett.

“ So glad I got to see you! You were one tough cookiw and I definitely admire you for that. You were not just my patient but you became my friend as well. I'll never forget the time u came over and we had girl talk!!! I hadn't laughed like that in years. I also won't forget how positive and courageous you had been throughout this battle. You will truly be missed Bonnie. Love u missy and may you reat in peace.

“ Bonnie was a dear friend of mine from childhood we had reconnected and kept in touch with each other throughout the years and to find out she had cancer was devastating but Bonnie fought back every day determined that one day she would get better the battle brought her down but she would get right back up and fight again she never gave up hope she was one of the strongest individuals i had ever known. Bonnie had a special gift while on this earth and that was spreading her smile, laughter and her loving heart to all that knew her she will be missed dearly. She is now joined together with both her parents smiling down from Heaven with the Angels. I know you are resting in God's care now. And to the family, I am thinking of you and praying that you'll find strength in this difficult time. I love you Bonnie one day i will see you again.

*With Sympathy,
Linda Smith*
