

Brad Martin Gruver

July 28, 2005 - July 16, 2023

It is with deepest sorrow we announce, Brad Martin Gruver's beautiful life was taken from his family far too soon, on July 16, 2023, twelve days before his 18th birthday, which he shared with his twin brother, Brandon Martin Gruver. He was candidly known as, "Bradley Boo, Juicy Jr., Mini Me, Mickey Monkey and wounded soldier."

Brad was born July 28, 2005, in Arlington, with his fraternal twin brother, Brandon Martin Gruver. Arlington was his home all his life, attending Key Elementary, Young Junior High and received his high school diploma from St. Augustine Old Roman Catholic Church in Fort Worth. He shared his Arlington home with parents, Bruce Martin Gruver and Tammy Mae Gruver; twin brother Brandon Martin Gruver; brother Zachary Thomas Pacos; and uncle, Robert Gunter.

Brad had a love for macaroni and cheese, pan-fried potatoes, ravioli, working out with this dad, cars, fishing, rap, R&B music, and a new-found love for country music his parents inspired in him. He played the trumpet and was committed to his fiancé, Kinsley and her daughter, Clementine. Brad loved to spend days with his friends, Eli, Montana, Isaac, Micah, L.J., Charles, Michael, Eldon, Jayce, McCayla, Cierra, Matthew, Luke, Trey and Harley McNairn.

Brad was extremely proud and devoted to his accounting position at United Refrigeration in Fort Worth.

His beautiful life was taken violently from his family and friends, and he is now in heaven with his grandfather, Arthur Bernard Swanner, and his aunt, Michelle Blakely. Brad will be sadly missed and will always hold a special place in his cousins' hearts, Kelly, Lily, Aubrey, Stephanie, Melissa, Devon, Dusty, Crystal, Cierra, Jayce and McCayla.

Survivors: Parents, Bruce and Tammy Gruver; brothers, Brandon Martin Gruver, Zachary Thomas Pacos and Bruce Martin Gruver III; uncle, Robert Gunter Jr.; grandmother, Carmelita Hernandez; aunt, Vanessa Miller; cousins, Tammy Baker, Kelly Owen and Stephanie Staton; and fiancéé, Kinsleigh Rogers and her daughter, Clementine.

Services: A visitation will be from 11 to 1 p.m. on Monday July 31, 2023, at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas 75050, where a service will begin at 1 p.m. Interment will follow at Emerald Hills Memorial Park, 500 Kennedale Sublett Road, Kennedale, TX 76060.

Please, God, take our son, Brad and hold him tight until the day we join him in heaven and are together again as a family. Our love for our son is very deep and he is so missed.

His memory may be honored with a gift to a GoFundMe set up in his name: <https://www.gofundme.com/f/raise-money-for-my-twins-funeral>.

“ I will never forget the goofy smile Brad had growing up. I still remember how much fun we had throwing the boys into the pool, and swimming with them.

“ One fond memory of Brad was a trip me and my daughter took with you and Brandon to Disneyland.. You were fascinated with all the hummingbirds we encountered while standing in long lines. You remind me of a hummingbird, especially as a child, always moving always curious and constantly asking questions. You were a force of nature. Whenever I see a hummingbird I will always think of you. Fly fast and free!
