

Calven Allen McCrary Sr.

August 7, 1952 - June 15, 2020

Calven Allen McCrary Sr, 67, faithful servant of Christ, husband, father, grandfather and brother, entered into eternal life on Monday, June 15, 2020 following a brief illness.

Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, June 17, 2020 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E Main Street, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050. Funeral: 11 a.m. Thursday, June 18, 2020 at Gateway Church Grand Prairie. Burial: Grand Prairie Memorial Gardens.

Calven Allen McCrary was born on August 7, 1952 in Stephenville, Texas, the son of the late Wendell Calven McCrary and the late Ima Faye Meador McCrary. Calven was the youngest of 4 children, growing up as the only boy in the family. He would attend school in Brock and Weatherford, before graduating from Weatherford High School.

Calven had a heart for God. He was always active in his local church. He spent time in ministry in Weatherford, Kingsland and Grand Prairie (Gateway Grand Prairie, formerly Shady Grove) where he was part of the leadership team. He lead a home group and was available to assist wherever requested.

He was a true "family man". Time spent hiking, attending Ranger baseball games and worshiping with family were all important to him. His sense of humor was unique, and telling "dad" jokes could easily describe him.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a sister, Audrey Park and his first wife, Jeanne Marie McKay McCrary.

Survivors: wife of 18 years, Karen Louise Hennessy McCrary; children, Calven McCrary Jr and his spouse Leslie, Joseph "Joe" McCrary and his spouse Angela, Meredith McCrary Lewis and her spouse Zane, Ginger Fields and her spouse Brandon; grandchildren, Elizabeth Lewis, Caleb McCrary, Zane Lewis III, Caden McCrary, Ethan fields, Madison Fields and Emerson McCrary.

Also by 2 sisters, Diana Gardner and Suzanne Carter.
