

Carolyn Sue Willis

December 13, 1943 - May 25, 2026

Carolyn Sue Willis, born on December 13, 1943, in Poteet, Texas, passed away peacefully on May 25, 2026, at the age of 82. She was a dedicated veterinary technician, having devoted her career to the well-being of animals at the 303 Animal Clinic in Grand Prairie, Texas, before retiring. Retirement was a significant achievement for Carolyn, allowing her to spend more cherished time pursuing her passions.

A passionate lover of the outdoors, Carolyn found joy in gardening, where she nurtured both flowers and vegetables, cultivating beauty and sustenance. She also cherished the thrill of motorcycle and trike riding with her husband, creating memories of adventure and freedom that she held dear.

Carolyn is survived by her loving daughter, Veronica Kight, and her nephews, Bobby and Kevin Kight. Her legacy of kindness, love for animals, and adventurous spirit will forever be remembered by those who had the privilege of knowing her.

A burial service will be held on June 4, 2026, in Venus, Texas, where friends and family will gather to celebrate Carolyn's life and honor her memory.

Carolyn was preceded in death by: Arthur Kight, Emily Singltery, Earl Willis
