

Cary August Kamradt

June 14, 1963 - August 3, 2006

Cary August Kamradt, 43, a native of Hartley, Iowa and resident of Galveston died Thursday, August 3, 2006 in Houston. Cary was born June 14, 1963 in Hartley, Iowa, the son of Herman Kamradt and Jurene Brink Kamradt. He was raised on a farm near Moneta and attended schools in Hartley. As a boy, he was confirmed and attended church at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Royal, Iowa. Cary left Iowa to begin a career as a truck owner and transporter. His career as a driver allowed him relationships with many, including, NASA, United Petroleum Transport, and for the last 12 years, Mission Petroleum. Mr. Kamradt enjoyed several activities, especially fitness, leading to friendships with associates from Family Fitness Center in Lake Jackson and Total Fitness in Galveston. Cary was prepared to enter a new venture in his life. He had been admitted and was prepared to start employment with the Brazoria County Sheriff's Department Academy, scheduled to begin August 7, 2006. As a man of quiet faith, he had recently been active and was attending church at Brookside Baptist Church in Pearland. Survivors include a son; A.J. Kamradt of Grapevine, mother; Jurene Mitchell of Arlington, father; Herman Kamradt and his wife Candy of Spirit Lake, Iowa, brother; Michael Kamradt of Flower Mound, sister; Lori Barnes and her husband Murray of Alvarado, step-sister; Jamie Hagedorn of Spencer, Iowa, nieces, nephews, uncles, aunts and cousins. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, August 8, 2006 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, 75050. Funeral: 11 a.m. Wednesday, August 9, 2006 at New World United Methodist Church, 2201 N.
