

Charles Truman Blomquist

November 24, 1945 - November 12, 2016

Charles Truman Blomquist, 70, passed away on Saturday, November 12, 2016 at Baylor University Medical Center in Dallas, Texas.

Graveside Service: 2:00 p.m. Friday, November 18, 2016 at DFW National Cemetery.

Charles Blomquist was born on November 24, 1945, the only child born to the late Nils Blomquist and the late Mary Adelle Wilson Blomquist in Austin. His family moved to Grand Prairie, where he attended school, graduating from Grand Prairie High School in 1963. He served in the United States Army.

He graduated from the University of Texas with a Bachelors Degree. He later graduated from Dallas Baptist University with a Masters Degree in Business Administration. While his former church, Bethel Temple of Dallas, was active, he served faithfully as a deacon. His true passion was playing golf. He loved seeking new courses all over the United States. His excitement would often lead to sleepless nights before a round of golf.

He is survived by his spouse, Patricia Ann Mimms Blomquist; children, Kristan Julia Harlan Brannon and her spouse Robert Steven, Eric Alan Blomquist and his spouse Kim, Amy Linn Blomquist Garst and her spouse Ron; grandchildren, Amber Todd, Haley Blomquist, Zoe Blomquist, Elizabeth Anne Brannon, Claire Blomquist and 2 great-grandchildren.
