

Charles Vernon Trimble

September 11, 1933 - April 7, 2012

Charles Vernon Trimble, 78, a retired truck driver and long time resident of Grand Prairie, died Saturday, April 7, 2012 after an extended illness. Charles was born September 11, 1933, in Des Moines, IA., the only child of the late Vernon Trimble and the late Pauline Barnett Trimble. His family would soon move to Oklahoma, where he attended schools, graduating from the old Classen high School class of 1953 in Oklahoma City. In 1975, he would move to Grand Prairie, working for Transcon Shipping. His entire working career would continue in the transportation industry. He would drive many "long hauls" for various employers until his retirement in 1997. Charles loved to go "antiquing" and to garage sales. He had a passion and skill for refinishing old furniture, which he practiced until his health began to fail. He is survived by his faithful wife of 50 years, Juanita Hall Trimble; children, Lynda Reichert and her husband Robert "Bob", Jacqueline "Jacque" Cassil, David Trimble and Angela Trimble. Also by 7 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and a granddaughter, Emily Trimble. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050. Graveside service: 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 10, 2012 at Grand Prairie Memorial Gardens, Pastor Randy Capote officiating.

Previous Events

Visitation

APR 9 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570

Tribute Wall

JL

“ I'm sorry Im just seeing this, Chuck was my dad's best friend since high school. My dad, John Harris loved Chuck as a brother. Im glad they are hanging out together in heaven. RIP Chuck

Julie LaMar - March 08 at 07:49 PM

KR

“ I remember Chuck as a very kind man with gentle brown eyes. He always was in good humor as I remember him. He loved all his kids and grand children. Very nice man. I will never forget him.

karen richardson - September 04, 2015 at 05:02 PM