

Charlotte Rose Weathers

June 14, 1952 - May 18, 2016

Charlotte Rose Phillips Weathers, woman of God, loving daughter, wife, mother, grandmother and sister, entered into eternal life on Wednesday, May 18, 2016.

Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E. Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050. Funeral: 10 a.m. Saturday, May 21, 2016 at Meadowbrook Baptist Church, 1705 N Irving Heights Blvd., Irving, Pastor John Crews officiating.

Charlotte was born on June 14, 1952, the daughter Billy Mack Phillips Sr. and the late Frankie Louise Tull in Fort Worth. She attended schools in Arlington, graduating from Sam Houston High School in 1970.

Charlotte had a heart for God, and devoted her life to teaching and mentoring others. She would become an inspirational Bible Study leader, hosting classes on Thursday evenings. The group would grow, reaching across different denominations and beliefs. At one point, sixteen churches and eleven denominations would be represented.

Her life would also be devoted to her her family. She would become a strong supporter of her husband in his pastoral duties at Meadowbrook Baptist Church. Her children and grandchildren always brought her joy, even during some of her most difficult days.

Diagnosed with lupus at the age of twenty-three, she would defy doctors and the statistics of others living with the disease. She would live for more than forty years, amazing both doctors and family. Her courage and strength for which she faced her sickness was inspirational to those who knew her.

She is survived by her husband of forty-six years, Rev. Kevin Weathers; children, Jacque Wellborn and her spouse Troy, Sarah Goforth and her husband Benjamin, Garrett Weathers and his spouse Amee; grandchildren, Micah, Emily, Hannah, Samuel; father, Billy Mack Phillips Sr.; sister, Tammy Harvey and her spouse Mike; brother, Billy Mack Phillips Jr. and a number of extended family and church members.
