“ I remember the first time I got to meet u Johnathan Halbrooks took me to his mom's to meet everyone for the first time n she was there. She welcomed me in the family with open arms n I loved her for that. We clicked n that was it. She made me laugh n would always tell me what do u see in him. She would tell me ure too good for him but he loves u. I sure am going to miss u Aunt Cheryl. I'm going to miss ure calls n how we would laugh together for hours on the phone. The last we hanged out it was last Christmas when me n Johnathan went to help hang up yall Christmas lights. Watching u n Joe I would just crack up. I just want u to kno u lefted a mark on my heart n soul n it was an honor knowing u. Thank u Aunt Cheryl for letting me be part of the family n for just loving me. I sure am going to miss u!!!

“ I have so many amazing memories growing up and you being my big sister. I will cherish them all. One of my favorite memories was when we went to trader's village and momma got so made at us because we couldn't quit laughing at her. We were partners in crime , lol.
