“ Mom, I miss you so much. I wish you were still here with us. It breaks my heart that I can't see you or hear you. I would give anything just to see or hear you again, even if it's just for a little bit. All I can think about is that movie you showed me “On borrowed time” I wish we had just a little more time with you. I'm gonna miss your presence and your cooking and even a little bit of your complaining. Life is going to be so different now, every time I see the Pioneer woman I will always think of you, or your famous Andy Griffith or your Keith Sweat. You did so much for others, I just wish you would've spoiled yourself a little more. We love you mom and will always think of you.

Mom, you mean the world to me. You were not only my mom but my best friend. I will ALWAYS miss kissing you, hearing your voice and seeing your face. You were always there for me when I'd tell you my problems and you would be very truthful and straight forward no matter what it was. You've taught me to never back down and stand up for myself no matter what. I never could understand it when I was younger but now that I'm older I do and I thank you for that. I will ALWAYS cherish the times I spent with you. I thank God for giving me you. I love you mom until I see you again. Love your daughter Annette.
