

Cynthia Nan Nichols

July 10, 1927 - June 23, 2015

Cynthia Nan Nichols, 87, a native of Corning, New York and resident of Arlington, died on Tuesday, June 23, 2015 at a local care center.

Memorial Service: 1 p.m. July 11, 2015 at Fellowship Church Grapevine, 2450 TX Hwy 121, Grapevine, TX, 76051. She will be interred beside her husband at Maple Lawn Cemetery in Bolivar, New York.

Cynthia was born on July 10, 1927, the daughter and 2nd of 3 children born to the late Willis Leroy Ford and the late Leda Macintosh Ford. Shortly after World War II, while attending Syracuse University, she would meet and marry the late William Nichols. They would remain married until his untimely death in 1978.

They would see the addition of 3 children to their family. William would become a photographer and move the family to Rochester. Cynthia would always be a strong contributor to the family business, moving and adjusting when they went into the restaurant business in Cassadaga. She was a skilled cook, cake decorator and a talented artist. She created many beautiful renderings in both oils and watercolors.

The Nichol's family had a strong love for the outdoors. Many warm memories were made on family camp-outs. The family's strongest bonds were created early in life during their time spent together on these outings.

She is survived by her children, Barbara Frazee and her spouse Michael, Steven Nichols and his spouse Janet, David Nichols and his spouse Tonja; 9 grandchildren; 3 great-grandchildren; brother, Willis Ford.
