

Cynthia Gayle Richardson

April 7, 1941 - December 13, 2015

Cynthia Gayle Richardson, 74, passed away in her Grand Prairie home on December 13, 2015 following cancer illness.

A celebration of her life will be held at 2:00 on Tuesday, December 22nd in the chapel of the First United Methodist Church of Grand Prairie, 122 N Center Street.

Gayle was born in Fort Worth, Tx. on April 7, 1941 to Raymond and Kathryn Roberts. She grew up in Grand Prairie, Tx., graduated from Grand Prairie High School in 1959 and attended UNT. Gayle had a long career at Lockheed-Martin where she was a valued employee. In retirement, she enjoyed spending time with family and friends and traveling to Colorado.

Gayle was preceded in death by her beloved, Frank Gregory. She is survived by her two daughters, Susan Richardson and Pamela Reeves; son-in-law, Russell Reeves; sister, Paula Martin; nieces, Dana Fay and Jill Gallagher. She will also be dearly missed by Lori Chase, Chad Gregory, Keri and Neil Gustavsen and Jason Gregory. Gayle was a loving Nana to 11 grandchildren. She was cherished by many friends and will always be remembered for her easy going warmth, kindness and generous spirit.

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking for donations in her name to the Heart to

Heart Hospice

Foundation. The Heart to Heart Hospice Foundation was created with a general mission of promoting the quality of life for individuals and organizations dealing with life-limiting illnesses, in conjunction with providing support for their caregivers, families and other members of the community. The mission of the Foundation also includes educating the community about end-of-life care, and palliative care philosophies and programs.
