“ Danny was my cousin. He took off after his mom (Vivian Phillips) passed away and none of his family had any idea where he was until he showed up at one of our other cousins door out of the blue one day. He disappeared again and when our cousin looked for him she found his obituary. He left his daughter and his family unknowing of his whereabouts. I hope he’s at rest and at peace now.

Danny was a sweet spirit he always had a nod of his head and a smile on his face. It didn't talk a lot but his face spoke volumes. You can tell by watching his face when he was in church that he loved the Lord. I can see him now walking slowly on the streets of gold nodding his head and smiling. Love you my friend
