

Daniel Diaz Reyes

July 13, 1936 - August 23, 2007

Daniel Diaz Reyes Jr., 71, a native of Mexico and resident of Midlothian, Texas, died August 23, 2007 at his home. Daniel Reyes was born July 13, 1936, the son of Daniel Reys and Damiana Avalos. Daniel moved with his family to Lubbock, becoming an American citizen and where he attended and graduated from school. After graduation from high school, Daniel joined the US Army, serving as a dental specialist. After 3 years of service and an honorable discharge, he enrolled in college at the University of Texas Arlington where he received his B.A. degree in Language. After graduation, Daniel began his career as a professor, accepting a position with Navarro County College. He enjoyed teaching, still giving private lessons in ESL. (English as a second language) He had been a resident of Midlothian for more than 25 years. Daniel had several interest, and they were manifest in his gardening, reading and listening to various genres of music. Some of his most enjoyable moments were taking long walks with Addison, his loving Chocolate Labrador. Survivors include his children, Robert Reyes, Susan Reyes, Daniel Reyes III; 7 grandchildren; 2 great-grandchildren; siblings, Lupe Reyes Vela, Carlos Reyes, Juan "John" Reyes, and Victor Reyes. Graveside services with military honors will be conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday, August 28, 2007 at the DFW National Cemetery in Dallas, Texas.
