

Darlene Jensen

March 3, 1933 - February 19, 2026

Darlene Wells Jensen passed away, peacefully, surrounded by family on the beautiful, sunny morning of February 19, 2026.

Darlene was born March 3, 1933 to Ezra Lamont and Lillie Annie Wells in Willard, UT. She was the 2nd born of 5 children, and the 1st born daughter.

She attended Box Elder High School in Brigham City, Utah. She married her forever sweetheart, W. Dell Jensen, in 1952. They were joined together in this life, until his passing in 2017. They are now joined together, for time and all eternity.

Darlene was a loving homemaker and moved to Texas with Dell in 1965, raising 3 children along the way. A devout follower of Christ and a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she spent her entire life loving, blessing and serving others. Serving in many capacities, including with LDS Social Services, Stake Missionary, serving as foster parents to numerous young children (with Dell), and countless callings in the LDS Church. Darlene truly lived the life of the good and faithful servant.

She loved baking and created the wedding cakes for many young brides in the LDS Church. She had an intense passion for genealogy and spent many hours and days in her work there, tracing her family lines back many generations. She loved the scriptures and spent daily time in them. She loved the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and would watch and listen at every opportunity.

Darlene loves her Savior and relished all Creation, finding beauty in most everything, and the blessings in most any circumstances. She was always quick to fearlessly approach a stranger with her smile and radiating love. There are many of these "strangers" who may never forget their interactions with Darlene.

“ My memories of my aunt Darlene Jensen are some of the fondest memories of one of the sweetest and kindest ladies I have ever met. She had a cute little laugh, or little giggle really. A beautiful smile, and a great sense of humor. I remember when I was a kid and aunt Darlene and uncle Dell and their kids came up and visited the family. Well, Kevin and my little brother Rodney went to the dead end and played with some matches and let it on fire. Aunt Darlene and uncle Dell was in the house visiting with the folks. And we could hear the fire engine you don't come down into the neighborhood. We didn't know what was happening and Kevin comes running home to the house going. Let's go home. Let's go home let's go. I'm ready let's go. It's OK we can just sit. It's all right. Let's go home. Let's go home. Next thing you know here comes Rodney being packed on the fireman, chief shoulders, and we found out the rest of the story and aunt Darlene just smiled and just couldn't believe what happened. They didn't get in trouble, but we didn't know who started what and all that that it was just funny how she just smiled made good out of a bad situation. And that's what aunt Darlene did all the time would turn a bad situation into a good situation.

A few years ago, me and my wife went down to Texas to visit aunt Darlene my cousin Kevin put it up, he's a great host. We sat there in his front room, just chatting about the good old times when she was a kid and she was telling the stories about my dad some of his mischievous ways when he was a kid and her little laugh, her little giggle, but it was a sweet kind, loving moment that we had with her and I am so grateful for cabinet for putting us up in his house that time. Just want to let him know that I'll miss my aunt. I miss my talks with her. We talk maybe once or twice a year she had a great memory and Darlene. I miss you and I love you love your favorite nephew Doug.
