“ What a blessing David was to all who knew him, especially to his wonderful family! My memories of David all include his wonderful daughter Traci. I specifically remember Traci and David singing together. So much talent and so much love for Jesus! I have no doubt he is still singing and playing his guitar for his Savior in heaven!

“David will be sorely missed. I’ve met few in my life that wore the love of Jesus as David does. I’m grateful for the times we shared. I really think he wrote the most relevant song for the generation that remains - What Are You Gonna Do?”

He gave me the blessing to perform it as often as desired. We played it at three events in August, and it’s in our regular rotation of songs.

“...when you see Jesus coming in His glory...”...“Will he say, ‘Well done!’ OR ‘I don’t know you’”...“He knocks on your heart, you hold the key.”

We that remain, have the choice of life to make.

God bless the House family.
