

David Rodriguez Martinez

July 25, 1953 - September 18, 2007

David Rodriguez Martinez, 54, a former bus driver for DART and a musician, died Tuesday, September 18, 2007 in Ft. Worth. David died as a result of an automobile-bicycle accident that occurred in Arlington. Even in death, David was able to give life to others as an organ donor. David was born July 25, 1953 in Dallas, Texas, one of three children born to Bicente F. and Geneva Rodriguez Martinez. David attended school in Temple before moving to Dallas, where he worked as a bus driver for Dallas Area Rapid Transit. He was also a gifted musician with talents and abilities to play the bass guitar, drums and as a singer. David had played with various bands, including Tejano Jam Band and the Latin Glow. Survivors: daughter, Audra Bennett; grandchildren, Skylar and Morgan Bennett; father, Bincente Martinez; mother, Geneva Luna and her husband Raymond; sisters, Lilly Fernandez and Linda Laredo. Memorial service will be conducted 12:30 Saturday, September 22, 2007, at Lakeside, 1729 Ave. B, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75051. Baptist Church, Rev. Brady Blevins officiating. Interment will be private, at a later date.