

David Walter Bartholio

July 13, 1936 - June 8, 2011

David Walter Bartholio, 74, a native of Salt Lake City, Utah, died on Wednesday, July 8, 2011 in Arlington, Texas. Mr. Bartholio was born on July 13, 1936, the second of three children born to the late David William Bartholio and the late Margaret Ethel George Bartholio. After high school, he would join the US Army where he would be discharged after serving honorably. David would move to Texas because of his work, employed by various freight companies including IML and Roadrunner Freight. He would retire in 2008 after a tenured career, serving as freight supervisor. He and his wife, Pat, loved to travel. They especially enjoyed cruises, taking more than 33 since 1986. Mr. Bartholio was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He is survived by his wife of 55 years, Patricia "Pat" Davis Bartholio; children, Jill Bartholio Stone and her husband Dennis, Brent Bartholio and his wife Susan, Bryan Bartholio and his wife Shelly, Jana Bartholio Garcia and 9 grandchildren. He was also anxiously awaiting the arrival of his first 2 great-grandchildren. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his sisters, Velma Burleson, Gayle Mora and a granddaughter, Lauryn Garcia. Visitation: 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday. Funeral: 11 a.m. Monday, June 13, 2011 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie. Burial: 12:45 p.m. at DFW National Cemetery, Dallas, Texas.
