

Deborah "Debbie" Carolyn Mason

April 28, 1956 - December 2, 2007

Deborah Mason was born in Calcutta, India, and raised in the Philippines by missionary parents, Dan and Esther Marocco. Debbie was a gifted singer, pianist, recording artist, composer, and teacher. As author and speaker, and by her example, she encouraged others to live victoriously in Christ. She ministered with her husband, at Christ for the Nations and as co-founders of Missions International. They organized teams to build clinics, schools and churches for needy indigenous people in third world countries. Always known as a woman of prayer, she served as Moms in Touch Contact for Southlake. Her warm hospitality made her home a blessing to all who entered. Debbie went to heaven Dec. 2, 2007. Survived by her husband Robert (Bob) Mason and two children, Daniella and Christian: four brothers; William, David, Philip, and James Marocco; numerous loving family members and devoted friends who will miss her understanding and wise counsel. Family will receive friends on Thursday, Dec. 6th from 9-10 am, with funeral services to follow at Gateway Church, 2121 E. Southlake Blvd, Southlake, TX. Burial: Lonesome Dove Cemetery. Donations may be made to Missions International, "Debbie's Darlings" caring for orphans. PO Box 93235, Southlake, TX 76092; www.missionsinternational.org

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 6 (CT)

Gateway Church
2121 E. Southlake Blvd.
Southlake, TX 76092