

Debra Karen Avans

April 1, 1965 - December 6, 2019

Debra Karen Bach Avans, resident of Harker Heights, was born on April 1, 1965, and passed away on December 6, 2019.

Debra was preceded in death by her parents, Hans and Inge Bach, and her grandparents, Willy and Anneliese Koerner.

Debra was born in Jersey City, New Jersey, the youngest of 3 children. At the age of 10, her family moved to Texas where Debra was raised. Shortly after graduating Humble High School in 1984, she joined the Army and was stationed in Germany.

In 1996, she graduated from Central Texas College where she was pinned as a Registered Nurse. She worked her twenty-three year career with a wonderful team at Baylor Scott & White Hospital.

She is survived by her daughters, Katie Swain and Eva Avans; grandchildren, Annalee Williams and Yahkeem E. Williams Jr.; brother, Michael Metzger and sister, Donna Bach Roberson.

The family request donations in Debra's name to either of her favorite charities, St. Jude's Children's Hospital or the ASPCA.
