

Delores Sue Humphreys

August 10, 1938 - August 27, 2008

Delores Sue Humphreys, 70, a homemaker, died Wednesday, August 27, 2008 after a lengthy illness. Delores was born August 10, 1938 in Brownwood, Texas, the daughter of Clarence Rodgers and Tyline Coker Rodgers. She attended school in Brownwood and later moved to Dallas where she met and married her husband, the late Billy Joe Humphreys. They would move to Grand Prairie, where she lived for more than 50 years. Delores was an avid reader and enjoyed listening to music, especially country music. Her family fondly remembers her unconditional love, kindness and caring way. When her health permitted, she enjoyed attending services at Bible Believers Assembly of God Church in Grand Prairie. Survivors: sons, Billy Humphreys, James Humphreys, Mark Humphreys; grandchildren, Isaac, Angelica, Treasure and Joshua; her siblings, Doris Gilder, Walter Rodgers and Bill Rodgers. Visitation: 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday. Funeral: 10 a.m. Friday, August 29, 2008 at Bible Believers Assembly of God Church in Grand Prairie. Burial: 3 p.m. at Mineola City Cemetery, Mineola, Texas. She was preceded in death by her husband and by a son, Paul Humphreys.
