

Dental "D.D." Davis Bellah

November 8, 1921 - November 26, 2003

Dental Davis "D.D." Bellah died Wednesday, November 26, 2003 at a local hospital in Arlington. Mr. Bellah was the former owner of Bellah and Son Construction Company in Grand Prairie. He was a faithful member of Calvary Tabernacle Pentecostal Church of God for more than 40 years. Mr. Bellah was a native of Minden, Texas, born to Grover and Ola Bellah on November 8, 1921. Survivors include his wife of more than 62 years; Gladys Bellah, sons; Alton Bellah and his wife Joyce of Highland Village, Ronald Bellah and his wife Karen of Joshua, Phillip Bellah and his wife Antoinette of Cedar Hill, Bill Bellah and his wife Deana of Crowley, daughters; Patricia Bellah of Arlington, Jeanie Puente and her husband Gene of Grand Prairie, 18 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren, brothers; David Bellah, Riley, MS, Elvin Bellah, Westcliff, CO., Donnie Bellah of Westcliff, CO., sisters; Pat Hunsinger, Canyon City, CO., Debbie Greana of Denver, CO., and Linda Ruth Bellah, Canyon City, CO. Services: 10:00 a.m. Monday, December 1, 2003 at Calvary Tabernacle Pentecostal Church of God, 308 SE 3rd St., Grand Prairie, TX, 75051. Rev. Norman G. Butler and Rev. Charles Bledsoe officiating. Interment: Southland Memorial Park. Visitation: 2-6 p.m Sunday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home.

Previous Events

Visitation

NOV 30 (CT)

Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home
500 E. Main Street
Grand Prairie, TX 75050
(972) 263-5570