

Don Ulm

November 28, 1934 - July 23, 2024

May Texas' strong prevailing winds sweep you north to your favorite campground

Waiting, wrapped in peace and anticipation, for your lifelong love to join you

As sadness rips through us and consolation is momentary and fleeting
We remember you with love-your teasing, your laughter, your deep insights

We wish all could be different ...

But no amount of wishing can change the hole in our hearts

That last instant glancing back at you

The sadness across time and space

All of us understanding it was a final moment together

With time the hurt will recede

Replaced with floods of fondest memories

Husband, Dad, Grandpa, Great-Grandpa

Know that your sense of adventure and incredible ability to conquer the world

Thrives in your family and legacy

Tribute Wall

DE

“ 1 file added to the album Ulm”

Dennis - August 06, 2024 at 03:13 PM