

Doris Jean Pierce

November 12, 1932 - March 3, 2017

Doris Jean Cannon Pierce, 84, a native of New Boston, TX and resident of Duncanville, entered into eternal life on Friday morning, March 3, 2017.

Visitation: 11 a.m. to 12 Noon on Saturday, March 11, 2017 at Red Bayou Methodist Church in New Boston, TX, followed by a service at 12. Burial will immediately follow at the Red Bayou Methodist Church Cemetery.

Doris Jean Cannon Pierce was born on November 12, 1932, the 6th child and only daughter of the late William Spivey Cannon and the late Willie Curtis O'Dell Cannon in New Boston. She would graduate from New Boston High School, spending the majority of her life there, before moving briefly to Grand Prairie where she would live several years with her brother, Squat Cannon.

Although she would never have children of her own, she showered many children with kindness and love. Her nieces and nephews were the recipients of her generosity. She loved childcare, and many adults in the New Boston area fondly remember time that was spent at her home when they were small.

She also had a love for animals, especially her cats. She had a wonderful voice, and loved singing.

Survivors include nieces and nephews; Dennis Cannon and his spouse Billie,

Melinda Poole and her spouse Johnny, Ray Cannon and his spouse Debra, Doris "Darcy" Cannon Harris and her spouse Phil, Brent Cannon and his spouse Teresa; 14 great-nieces and nephews.
