“ My Aunt Dovie was a beautiful picture of Jesus as she went about her daily life. I loved and admired her all my life. I remember knocking on her door and her answering so excited to see me and excited to tell me that she was memorizing the book of James. She was full of the joy of Jesus and was a joy to be with. I have much peace knowing my Aunt Dovie is with Jesus, her sister Marceal, who is my mother, her mother, Janie Whitaker and my brother Mike and many more family and loved ones.

Dovie was my only mother-in-law from January 1965 to December 2003. I couldn't have asked for a better mother-in-law. She was a fine Christian lady who was well loved and respected by all.

“ I will ever be thankful for the day Dovie Pittman entered my life and introduced me to the language and world of the Deaf. She taught me to serve the Lord through loving and serving the Deaf. How precious are my memories of service with Dovie and Walter in the Deaf Class at Calvary Baptist. What a blessing to watch those two soulmates - their total commitment to the Lord, to each other and to the work God had called them to among the Deaf. How wonderful the memories of sitting at her feet as she opened each class with prayer and a reading from God's Holy Word. I pray God will continue to use me as He used Dovie and Walter in His glorious work to reach the Deaf with the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. How I anticipate that Great Reunion Day!
Thank you, Dovie, for a life well-lived, in the service of Holy God.
Love, Sharon McCauley LeBoeuf
