

Mr Earl Wayne Willis

June 19, 1945 - September 12, 2024

Our beloved Earl Wayne Willis, born in Orange, TX to the late Rev. Earl Daniel Willis and the late Myra Seago Willis, took his last breath on September 12, 2024, in Grand Prairie, TX.

Fondly known as "Earl," he spent his life moving alongside his Baptist Pastor father in various communities, finally settling in Grand Prairie with his loving wife, Carolyn Willis.

Earl, a hardworking mechanic for LTV, made a name for himself in the private sector before retiring. A dedicated member of the US Army Reserve, Wayne shared 60 years of marriage with his beloved Carolyn, whom he cherished deeply.

Preceded in death by his parents and sister Yvonne Willis Black, Wayne leaves behind his adoring wife Carolyn and daughter Veronica "Cricket" Kight. A man of discipline and order, Wayne found solace in his workshop, meticulously organizing his tools and equipment. His legacy lives on through his family, creating memories that will endure for generations to come.

A visitation will be held on Friday, September 20, 2024 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E Main Street, Grand Prairie, TX, 75050, followed by a 1:30 pm Graveside Service at Venus Memorial Park in Venus, TX. In Earl's honor, please join us as we come together to remember a loving husband, father, and friend to all who knew him. Rest in peace, Earl, your presence will be deeply missed.
