

Edith Faye Forgy

September 2, 1924 - May 3, 2011

Edith Faye Forgy, 86, retired owner of Edith's Flowers in Grand Prairie, died Tuesday, May 3, 2011 in Grand Prairie following a lengthy illness and Alzheimer's disease. Edith was born September 2, 1924 in Corsicana, Texas, the 3rd of 4 children born to the late Edward J. Jergins and the late Pallie Margaret Walters Jergins. She is the last surviving child of her family. After World War II, she would move to Grand Prairie with her family. She originally worked for Western Auto before starting her own floral business. Edith's Flowers would flourish for 35 years, until the time of her retirement in 1995. Edith loved to dance and take care of her grandchildren. She was active in the community until her health began to fail in 2007. She is survived by daughters, Charlotte Hall and her spouse Bill, Linda Clague and her spouse Jack; grandchildren, Shelly Brainerd, Parrish Brainerd and Debby Clague and 8 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, siblings, grandchildren, Tonya Rena Riddle and Stacy Moore. Visitation: 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesday. Funeral: 2 p.m. Thursday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home. Burial: Southland Memorial Park.
