

Edward Calvin Cassine Sr.

April 1, 1913 - July 20, 2010

Edward Calvin Cassine Sr., 97, a native of New Orleans, Louisiana and resident of Grand Prairie, died Tuesday, July 20, 2010 at a local hospital in Arlington, Texas. Edward Cassine was born April 1, 1913 in New Orleans, the youngest of four children born to Joseph Cassine and Henrietta Gray Cassine. He would move to California until 1975, working as a longshoreman. His love of his native home would compel him to come back, living in New Orleans until 2005 when he was displaced by the hurricane, Katrina. Edward loved being with people and was always excited about participating in Mardi Gras events, serving on several different occasions as Carnival King. He is survived by a daughter, Janice Lazard; son, Edward Cassine Jr.; 10 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren and 3 great-great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; siblings; and wife, Daisy Bell Rodney Cassine and daughter, Patricia Davillier. Recitation of the Holy Rosary will precede a prayer service at 2 p.m., Saturday, July 24, 2010 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 East Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050. A private burial will follow at Southland Memorial Park.
