

Elva Contreras

October 27, 1946 - May 12, 2012

Elva Contreras, 65, faithful servant of Christ and loving wife, mother and grandmother, passed from this life unexpectedly on Saturday, May 12, 2012. Elva was born in Mexico on October 27, 1946, the daughter of Basilio Reyes and Petra Reyes. She would move to Grand Prairie in 1987, where she immediately became a faithful member of the Church of God. Elva was a very generous person. Though not blessed with material possessions, she would gladly share what she had. She loved to witness to those who would listen. She loved to worship, sing or just study the Word of God, and was a Godly example of what a Christian should be. She had been a long time member of Iglesia Dios Roca Eternal. Survivors: husband, Honorio Contreras; children, Edith Contreras, Nathan Contreras and his wife Maricela; grandchildren, Chloey Cantu, Abigail Contreras, Natanael Contreras, Isaac Kim; sisters, Diana Sepeda and Hilda Sepeda. Graveside service will be at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 19, 2012 at Southland Memorial Park. A memorial service will follow at 6 p.m. at Iglesia Dios Roca Eternal.
