

Enrique "Henry" Ortega

November 22, 1953 - November 12, 2020

Enrique (Henry) Ortega, age 66, passed away on November 12, 2020 in Arlington, TX.

Enrique was born in San Angelo, TX to Eulogio Ortega and Maria Luna on November 22, 1953. He was preceded in death by his parents, siblings Nina, Locha, Neri, Mere, Zule, Eulogio Jr, and Alicia. He is survived by his loving wife of 17 yrs, Mary Esther, her son Noel Palomarez, son Joseph (wife Kamrin), grandson Aiden and granddaughter Haley, his remaining siblings, Olga, Linda, Viola and Lupe and an extended family of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Enrique was a skilled mechanic, woodworker, plumber, electrician and home remodeler making a hobby and a career out of these trades. He loved to dance, sing, laugh and spend time with his friends. He enjoyed working word searches and doodling in coloring books in his quiet time. He liked watching novelas and listening to Tejano music and would never turn down Whataburger or a Coca Cola. A highlight for him was his beloved Chihuahua "Baby" who will miss him very much.

Enrique unapologetically marched to the beat of his own drum and left a big impression with those close to him. He was a fierce loyalist to his family and will be thought of often and dearly missed.

A Memorial Service will be held Monday, November 16th at 6PM at Ministerios Faro Church at 2202 W Main St, Grand Prairie, TX 75050.
