

Enrique Valenzuela

July 15, 1935 - January 6, 2015

Enrique Valenzuela, 79, a resident of Grand Prairie, died peacefully at home surrounded by family on Tuesday, January 6, 2015.

Visitation: 6 p.m. Wednesday at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where funeral services will follow at 7 p.m. that evening.

Enrique was born in Durango, Mexico on July 15, 1935, the son of Juan Valenzuela and Magdalena Fernandez. Enrique was a romantic and often showered his wife of 41 years, Margarita Valenzuela, with roses as often as he could. Every morning before breakfast, he enjoyed a good game of domino's with his wife and a cup of coffee. Amongst many board games he liked checkers and cards the most. He often watched Novelas with his wife on the couch and a bowl of popcorn. As long as he was near his wife, he was happiest.

He is survived by his wife Magdalena Fernandez; Children, Luis Valenzuela, Lucelli Valenzuela, Siboney Valenzuela; 3 Grandchildren , Desteny Cabrera, Angela Vega and Isaiah Cabrera.

Tribute Wall

“ 36 files added to the album Life Tributes

---

Guerrero - Dean Funeral Home - January 14, 2015 at 12:33 PM