

Ernest Wayne Daniels

August 8, 1942 - April 25, 2024

Ernest Wayne Daniels, known to many as Wayne, passed away on April 25, 2024, at the age of 81 in Midlothian, Texas. He was born on August 8, 1942, in Lampasas, Texas. Wayne was a loving, kind, and caring man who always extended a helping hand to those in need. His infectious smile and uplifting attitude brightened the lives of all who knew him.

Wayne was a sign painter by trade and owned a successful sign company in Dallas for 50 years. His distinct script can still be seen on signs throughout the Dallas area, showcasing his talent and passion for his work. Additionally, he was an extremely gifted and talented artist who enjoyed painting window murals.

He was baptized in the LDS Church and held devout Christian beliefs, finding solace and strength in his faith in Christ. Wayne's life will be celebrated at Southland Memorial Park in Grand Prairie, Texas. Services will be held at 1100 SW 3rd Street in Grand Prairie, Texas on Friday, May 3rd at 1:00pm.

Wayne is survived by his loving daughter, Lisa Wall, and her husband Charles, his sister Patience Moore and her husband Tom Watson, devoted grandchildren Loran Ashley Sullivan and husband Joseph, Christopher Michael Wall and wife Amanda, and Charles Wilson Wall, as well as his adored great-grandchildren Joseph, Andrew, George, Samuel and Noah. He is also survived by his loving partner in life, Linda Robinson. Wayne was preceded in death by his father, Ernest Lee Daniels, his mother, Bertha Kizer Daniels, his loving wife, Judith Holcomb Daniels, and his siblings Billy Ray, CW, Doris, Shirley, and Louise.

Wayne's legacy of love, laughter, and creativity will forever be cherished by those who were fortunate enough to know him.
