

Estela Ojeda Rangel

July 9, 1949 - January 18, 2011

Estela Ojeda Rangel, 61, a resident of Grand Prairie, died Tuesday, January 18, 2011 in Arlington, Texas. Estela was born on July 9, 1949, the daughter of the late Ysbel Ojeda Sr. and Ramona De La Cruz Ojeda, and the 4th of 5 children. She was born in Carrizo Springs, Texas, but would move to Dallas at the age of nine. She attended Catholic Schools including Crozier Technical from which she would graduate. After graduation, she would begin a career in the banking business where she would work as an accountant. She retired in 1991 after her health would begin to fail. Estela was a life long Baptist, attending Lakeside Baptist and various other Baptist churches in and around Grand Prairie. She will always be remembered as a great mother and grandmother. She loved bingo, joking and laughing with her friends. She is survived by her husband, Mike Espinoza; daughters; Amanda De La Rosa and her husband Gabriel, Tonya Ojeda; grandchildren, Alexis De La Rosa, Maria De La Rosa; brother, Ysbel Ojeda Jr.; sister, Amelia Ojeda and her spouse Tomas Rocha. Visitation: 12 noon until 2 p.m. Friday, January 21, 2010 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home where chapel service will be conducted at 2. Burial will follow in Grand Prairie Memorial Gardens.
