

Eve Johnson

October 29, 1929 - September 1, 2019

Eve Adams Johnson, 89, resident of Fort Worth, passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 1, 2019 at home.

Visitation: 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. Friday, September 6, 2019 at Guerrero-Dean Funeral Home, 500 E Main Street, Grand Prairie, Texas, 75050. Burial: 11 a.m. Friday at DFW National Cemetery.

If friends desire, the family request donations be given to the American Cancer Society.

Eve Johnson was born on October 29, 1929 in Harlan, Kentucky, the daughter of the late Robert Adams and the late Pearl Garland Adams. She would spend a short time of her childhood before moving to Michigan.

While in Michigan, she would meet William "Bill" Johnson. He would propose to her, and they would spend the next sixty-four years of life together.

Bill worked for American Airlines. When the company transferred to the Dallas-Forth Worth area, Bill and Eve would soon follow. They would settle here and raise a son. Eve was a woman of many talents. She worked as a cosmetician for awhile, but her real talent was decorating.

She is survived by her husband, Bill Johnson; son, John Johnson and his spouse Kimberly; the light of her life, her grandchildren, Jade and Zane Johnson; brothers, Mike Adams, Bill Adams and his spouse Imma.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings, Robert Adams, Mack Adams, Christine Adams Green, Margaret Adams Sullivan and Ruth Adams Hambright.

Pallbearers: John W Johnson, Zane W Johnson, Kim Johnson, Karl Wallace, Pamela Adams and Don McDaniel.

“ Sending my love for you all from South Carolina as you go through this time of grieving for such a beautiful woman. I always enjoyed reconnecting and interacting with her via social media... I have memories, though not as many as others of our family reunions, so precious to have those memories. Hugs to you all ❤️
