“ What do I say about me dad?.... No words can express the love and bond my dad and I had, He was the most compassionate and giving man. I remember one time when we were kids we saw a man homeless in town. My dad brought us home, gathers some blankets and old clothes of his to take back to this complete stranger he had never met before. That was the kind of man my dad was, his heart was so big. I love you dad and take comfort that you are not suffering anymore. I will miss you but I know you will always be with me. A father-daughter love can never be broken.

“ I remember when I started dating Rosie (Felix's sister) and she took me to Felix & Olivia's house to meet him. Felix was the first brother of Rosie's that I met. He greeted me with this smile that would light up the sky. He opened his arms and accepted me right away, and welcomed me into his home. A few weeks later he asked me to help him coach his son's (Felix Jr.) baseball team. I felt honored that he ask me just meeting him only a few weeks earlier.

I could not have been any more blessed and lucky to have been a part of this Martinez / Lomas Family for over 35 years. And it started when I met one of the nicest man that I have ever met. So much so that we asked Felix to be Godfather to our second son Ryan and that made him the most proudest of Godfather's that one could be.

Compadre, Thank You from the bottom of my Heart for all these years of Great friendship, Love and being a Family. I will never forget You. Much Love to You!!!!

Give My Love to Grandma and Grandpa!!!
