

Frankie Madeleine Davidson

July 25, 1924 - January 5, 2023

Frankie Madeleine Robinett Davidson, 98, a lifelong resident of Grand Prairie, Texas went to be with The Lord on January 5, 2023. Frankie was born on July 25, 1924, to Leoma and Charlie Robinett in Gorman, a small town in West Texas near Eastland.

Preceded in death by her seven siblings, husband Elmer L. Davidson and beloved son, Elmer Jr, (Dave), she is survived by her daughter Susan Davidson Bee, son-in law Russ Bee, grandson, Todd Davidson, and great grandchildren Dr. Savannah Davidson, Colton, and Connor Davidson.

Frankie graduated from Gorman High School in May 1941. During her senior year, she won the Miss Eastland Beauty Pageant and competed in the Miss Texas Pageant, where she won the 2nd Runner Up title.

On July 4, 1941, she married Elmer Lee Davidson, a US Army soldier from Florida, who was stationed in Eastland. They met at a USO dance the previous year. While Elmer was overseas, Frankie moved with her son and sister to Grand Prairie, Texas.

In 1960, Frankie earned a Registered Nursing degree from Arlington State College, now the University of Texas at Arlington. During her nursing career, she worked at Plattner Hospital in Grand Prairie and Vitas Hospice. After a short-lived retirement at age 62, she returned to Vitas Hospice and worked until she was 85 years old. She won many awards for her outstanding service to hospice patients.

Frankie and Elmer were married for 80 years and lived in Grand Prairie from 1945 until 2019 until their health declined. They had many friends and were members of multiple social and service clubs. Frankie and Elmer enjoyed years of fishing at their lake house at Possum Kingdom Lake with their family and friends plus many gambling trips to Las Vegas.

Frankie was a member of Indian Hills Baptist Church. As per Frankie's wishes, there will be no funeral or memorial service.
